THE HISTORY OF PARLIAMENT DISSERTATION COMPETITION 2016

1. The History of Parliament Trust will award a prize of £250 to the best undergraduate dissertation presented in 2016 on a subject relating to British or Irish parliamentary or political history before 1997.
2. Each University History department is invited to enter one dissertation which they consider to qualify. They should send an unbound copy of each dissertation being entered for the prize, together with a completed entry form (see below) to 'History of Parliament Dissertation competition, 18 Bloomsbury Square, London WC1A 2NS'. Copies will not be returned.
3. The closing date for receipt of entries is 1 August 2016.
4. Parliamentary History has agreed to consider publication in the Journal for the winning dissertation. The decision to publish or not will be at the discretion of the editor of Parliamentary History. He may ask for appropriate amendments if necessary.
5. For any queries, please contact the competitions email at the History of Parliament: competitions@histparl.ac.uk.
